STATINTL

Washington, D. C.
Dear [redacted]:

I thank you for your letter of 20 Oct. I belatedly received this letter only yesterday. It is inexcusable of me, but I seldom keep a record of the date when I read a letter. I have sent you two. The first one was a large mailing envelope (about 9" x 11"), sent some time ago; the second one, an ordinary long envelope, sent quite recently.

Could it be possible, that in your letter when you state "your letter of 2 October", you are referring to my second letter? I believe I sent it before 20 Oct. but definitely much later than 2 Oct.

If the typing "2 October", is correct and not an error (highly improbable), then, of course, this is much ado about nothing.

For forwarding my letter and the enclosures to the Department of Defense, I also extend my thanks.

Yours sincerely,

August T. Michelson.
